Dec. 24, 1928.

Mrs. Mollie Collier,
C/o Mr. J. B. Collier,
Donna, Texas.

My dear Cousin Mollie:

The beautiful Christmas present, pillow cases, duly received and will come in very nicely in our home. The family appreciate them, but more than all they appreciate your very kind remembrance and that you have good health and able to get around at your age.

I trust to see you next spring or summer personally one more time. I intended coming this year, but fate was against me. My business was in such shape that I could not get away for any length of time.

With love and best wishes from all of us, I beg to remain

Yours most cordially and sincerely,
